University of Wisconsin Platteville Distance Learning

Posted by VickyPhillips - 2011/07/27 11:40

_____

Hello All,

The University of Wisconsin Platteville Distance Learning has been offering education for more than 150 years.

Get Educated is pleased to have awarded two online education scholarships to Platteville online students who was working on their online masters criminal justice when we first launched our distance learning scholarship program.

If you're a Platteville alum or interested in learning more about this state school check this board to meet up or get more info on specific business, criminal justice, project management online degree and certificate programs from University of Wisconsin Platteville Distance Learning.

Vicky Phillips
Get Educated

==========